Manifesto
participants of the Round Table “Club of Friends of Russia” to Artek residents 8th shift "Artek" gathers friends"

Dear friends!

It's great that you came for this particular shift “Artek gathers friends”! We believe that this shift helped each of you find friends and like-minded people.

"Artek" has always been a symbol of friendship for all children living on planet Earth. Participants of the 8th Artek shift from 52 countries of the world united through friendship and cooperation.

We can say with confidence that friendship born here is the strongest. Every friendship is unique and special, just like each of us. It is formed on the basis of mutual understanding, trust and support. We grow and develop together with our friends. You can share joy and sorrow with friends; friendship requires the ability to listen and hear, and be ready to support in difficult times.

We believe that inside each of you there live kindness and understanding, a sincere desire to contribute to the common destiny of the planet, to change the world for the better.

Together we must build bridges between nations and peoples, unite our efforts to solve world problems.

We resist injustice and division, replacing them with understanding and support.

Let's make the world a brighter place by enjoying life, creating a fair society in our countries, where every person, regardless of nationality, religion or social status, will feel happy.

Friends, we appeal to you as worthy representatives of the world community who believe in the power of friendship, to do everything possible to overcome the difficulties and obstacles that separate adults on the path to the future of their children - you and me!

See you again at Artek!
